

Setup your own live 1-2-1 SMS chat service in minutes and start to benefit from the ever increasing mobile market!

Our live 1-2-1 SMS chat service enables mobile users to anonymously participate in fun and flirtatious chat messaging with a live chat center. TXTChat provides you with the flexibility to manage and run or outsource your own mobile chat solution!

With an easy to use interface and unique operator features, TXTChat provides you with a complete and comprehensive application you are looking for!

TXTChat Overview

TXTChat provides benefits for outweighing competing chat applications by providing cost effective, high quality messaging with maximum application flexibility and features, while maintaining simple use for its operators.

When the operators receive an opt-in message from the mobile user, they reply accordingly to the subject matter the user nominated their interest in. This interaction engages the user with a real human response and has proven to be very popular worldwide!

The TXTChat platform has many features designed to engage the user including MMS & Video capabilities and auto-reminder messages to re-initiate inactive chat users. Users can experience video, animation, pictures, sound and text all together providing an enhanced SMS chat experience!
